This is a longer text. In CTF, and in general, in security assessment, we need to carefully look at everything!
As you might notice (?), there are some upper characters. Maybe these upper characters compose a hidden message. Try to retrieve them, and then print them!